Personal Tradelines's Covenants, Representations, and Warranties.

Personal Tradelines covenants, represents and warrants the following:

a) Personal Tradelines does not and cannot guarantee any specific result or specific increase in credit score as result of its services. Each Client's credit history and credit score differs for a variety of reasons which prevents Personal Tradelines from guaranteeing any specific outcome from this service.

b) Personal Tradelines does not and cannot guarantee that a Client will be approved for any loan or credit request as a result of its services. All lenders use underwriting criteria in the credit decision-making process that may view or weigh the same basic facts differently from other lenders. An increase in a borrower's FICO score generally improves the likelihood that a lender will approve a credit request, but it does not necessarily mean that any specific lender will actually approve a request for credit in every instance where a FICO score has been improved by Personal Tradelines's services.

c) Personal Tradelines is not a credit repair company in that it does not attempt to correct inaccurate information on any credit report of the Client, does not submit or attempt to resolve credit disputes on behalf of the Client, and does not attempt to improve a Client's credit record or history.

In exchange for Personal Tradelines's services under this Agreement, the Client agrees to pay a fee to Silver Bullet Consulting Inc DBA Personal Tradelines as defined per client agreement. All payments made payable to Silver Bullet Consulting Inc. The fee charged by Personal Tradelines for these services varies depending on a number of factors, including the specific program requested by Client, the current status of the Client's credit score and credit history, and the number and type of trade lines that Client requests.

No fee is earned by Personal Tradelines, or the Personal Tradelines Investor, until and unless the addition of the Client as an authorized user of the Personal Tradelines Investor's trade-line is reflected on the Client's credit reports issued by the three primary credit reporting companies, Equifax, Experian and TransUnion. Personal Tradelines may ask for a deposit to secure payment of its fee for services, and in this case, the Client's deposit will be held in a separate, non-interest bearing bank account until such time as the fee has been earned as set forth in this Agreement. The specific terms and conditions of the amount of the fee charged are defined by the client agreement.
